

What People Are Saying About

Reading Rocks Junior...

My child is involved in numerous activities. The only one he consistently asks about is Reading Rocks Junior. This speaks to the engaging program and the enthusiastic volunteers. My child equates learning with fun. He has also developed confidence with literacy. As a parent, it is reassuring to know there are programs like Reading Rocks Junior and organizations such as the LDANR whose mandate is to make a positive difference in a young child's life. The kindness, compassion and empathy that have been extended to my son has been appreciated. My son has developed literacy skills that will serve him well as he begins his academic life. He looks forward to future Reading Rocks Junior sessions.

Very much enjoyed the program. I found he was very successful. Upon starting, he knew 2-3 letters, now he is able to recognize the majority of the letters and the sound they make. Great job to all the instructors. It was an excellent program.
